This is Also Vanity.

Dr. S. J. Crumblin, dean of the school of medicine at the University of Kansas, recently spoke out against the use of face paint by American women.

"It is natural methods for the improvement and refinement of the complexion and lines of the face were used," Dr. Crumblin said. "American women in a couple of generations would be the most beautiful on earth. It is the unnatural methods they are using that are roughening the lines of the face and absolutely destroying the complexion. The women are using entirely too much rouge and paint and too many preparations which are destructive to the tissues. Paint and powder on the face act like so much dirt. They clog the pores of the face, and the poison in some of them is absorbed. Clean habits are the greatest aid to beauty."

Perhaps New York city furnishes about the worst examples of the use of cosmetics. Even young girls thus disfigure their natural beauty. Any one who has ever seen these painful exhibitions will appreciate the advice given one of these over-painted ones by an "indignant lady," "Wash your face."

The ideas of Dr. Crumblin are echoed by Miss Kate E. Turner, assistant principal of the Erasmus high school, Brooklyn. Miss Turner says that comparatively few of the girls paint, but that these few are too many. She recommends basket ball and other athletic exercises, as girls who follow these sports soon get rid of the nonsense. She sensibly adds that "as soon as the artificial beauty gets the notion into her head that the attention which she attracts is not admiration, but disgust, then things will improve."

Recognize the Chinese Republic

Because China will not borrow from the great powers of Europe there is a movement on foot to strangle the republic. Strangely enough, our own government, after which that of China is to some extent modeled, seems to be aiding in this nefarious effort. At any rate, it is not helping the young and struggling republic by extending its prompt recognition. This course is not only in violation of our time honored policy, but is against the overwhelming public sentiment of the nation. If a vote could be taken tomorrow on the proposition it is safe to say that nine-tenths of the people would favor recognition.

Part of the campaign against China is that of misrepresentation. Every new republic in the world's history, our own included, has had to suffer a similar campaign of destruction, engineered, no doubt, by monarchist diplomacy. Monarchies and the powers that prey do not like republics. In each new one that arises they read one more letter in the sentence of their own doom. It is a prophecy of the end of kings on the one hand and of plutocrats on the other. It is a promise of the rule of the people.

But why do our own papers participate in this effort to misrepresent China? It may be true that the new republic has not progressed in freedom and self government as has our own. It is not to be expected that an age long despotism can be changed to an up to date popular government in a day. Yet China's face is turned toward the light, and she should be encouraged in her efforts to advance. That is the practically unanimous sentiment of Americans, and they should make it felt at Washington.

Three Missouri state senators planned to make one hired dress suit do for the three of them at the inaugural ball. If many of our statesmen showed the same zeal for public economy that they do for private parsimony taxes would not be so high.

When Admiral Robert E. Peary, discoverer of the north pole, and Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the south pole, clasped hands the other day there was a literal meeting of the ends of the earth.

The first parcel post aviator started from Boston to New York recently with several packages of beans. It is refreshing to know that Boston is still true to her ideals.

One of the heads of the money trust admitted that it might be dangerous in bad hands. Does that mean in the hands of somebody else?

President-elect Wilson is bound to be a college man to the end of the chapter. He is now mixed up with the electoral college.

A specialist says that face paint causes ugliness by closing the pores of the skin. It not only causes but advertises ugliness.

A seat on the New York Stock Exchange is now worth $53,000. Lamb shearing is a privilege that comes high.

Cairo might write a book on what he did not see of the United States.

WHIPPING POST FOR GIRLS.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 25.—In a habeas corpus action started today by Mrs. Barbara Boris of Homestead to free her daughter Barbara, 16 years old, from the state reformatory, the woman alleges the school authorities maintain a whipping post at which her daughter has been cruelly punished. She alleges the girl's naked back has repeatedly been exposed to the cut of the lash.

It is further declared that the state's charges are fed chemicals in their food. Mrs. Boris says her daughter is a physical and nervous wreck.

Proper Expression of Appreciation.

A compliment should be as quickly given for good goods and good service as a kick for defective goods and poor service. Most people realize this. That is why so many have written to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy telling of remarkable cures of coughs and colds it has effected, and expressing their appreciation of the good quality of this well known remedy. For sale by all dealers.—Advt.

Garden Where Once Was Lake.

On the Lake of Harlem—it was 70 miles square—where the fleet of William of Orange fought the Spaniards and relieved London, there are now, as on the site of many another more in Holland, prosperous farms, market gardens and nurseries. The pumping away of the water was done by great engines.

SLAVES SET FREE
RETURN TO BONDS

Still Greater Freedom With King-ly Honors Thereby Secured.

Pastor Russell's Discourse the Third and Last of a Series Upon the Texts Which Embellish the Famous Union Station of Washington City.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Washington, D. C., January 19.—Pastor Russell preached at Washington Temple today his third sermon on our Union Depot texts. Today's text was: "The Truth shall make you free." (John 8:32.) He said:

Truth is the great Emancipator. All enslavers oppose the Truth, knowing its power on the minds of their victims. The taskmasters of today would fain hide the truth from wage-slaves, but find it impossible—so great is the power of the press—and there are publishers who have not sold their moral sense for sordid gain. When chattel slavery prevailed, the master found it advantageous to educate his slaves and thus increase their value, but disadvantageous to instruct them along the lines of human rights. The feckless lords were very willing that the common people consider them demigods, not subject to law as others.

The same principle prompted the emperors to proclaim themselves, "pontifex maximus," and to encourage their people to worship them. The natural selfishness of man ever prompts him to take advantage of others; and ignorance has been the chain which has bound the masses.

The Bible has been the great Emancipator of slaves—mental, moral and physical. It is the Torch of Liberty, lighted by Divine Providence. The Bible alone tells us that all humanity are of one blood, creatures of the same God, amenable to Him. While the Bible instructs that kings and all in authority should be recognized, it also tells that the king is amenable to exactly the same laws as his most menial slave, and that if he violates these laws he is as sure to be punished.

Moreover, the Bible points out that the present is related to the future life as cause to effect. It shows that every act, word and thought bears upon character-development, and prepares us for higher things in the life to come or gives us more difficulty in reaching perfection and everlasting life.

"Hope Thou in God."

Looking into the past, we see Israel, sicken with fear of their Egyptian taskmasters, not daring to take steps for liberty. But after the Exodus, after God's Covenant with them at Sinai, they were a changed people. The hopes inspired by the Scriptures preserved them as a nation when contemporaneous civilization perished.

The Jews undoubtedly destroyed their own nationality. The Romans merely performed the funeral rites in destroying Jerusalem, A. D. 70. The Emperor evidently claimed that the Jewish religion must necessarily be at the foundation of their ungovernable character. Their liberty, used contrary to Divine instruction, led to discontent and anarchy.

Christ's Followers Set Free.

The Message of Jesus and the Apostles attracted some "Israelites indeed," anxious to serve God. The early Christians courageously suffered persecution and carried the Gospel everywhere. The Roman emperors, Nero and Diocletian, perceived that Christians had a courage which they feared would be infectious, and persecuted them horribly. But the Master had freed them from fear of death.

Then came a long period of darkness, when the Scriptures were forgotten, and only the words of bishops were heard—words misunderstood to be of Divine authority through Apostolic Succession. Next came centuries under control of creeds and church councils. Darkness, ignorance and superstition prevailed, although God had His witnesses throughout that long period.

Finally the Bible again emerged, when printing came into use. God's time had come for the Bible again to be the Torch of Liberty, and independence proportionately came forward. Today Britain, Germany, Scandinavia and America lead the world, because of the light from the Word of God.

Danger Now, as to the Jews.

MY BRIDE THAT IS TO BE JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

know not if her eyes are light
As summer skies or dark as night
I only know that they are dim
With mystery: In vain I peer
To make their hidden meaning clear,
While o'er their surface, like a tear
That ripples to the silken brim,
A look of longing seems to swim
All worn and weary like to me;
And then, as suddenly, my sight
Is blinded with a smile so bright,
Through folded lids I still may see
My bride, my bride that is to be.

tered in the end of their Age confronts us. Not all receive the Truth in the love of it. Not all, therefore, are sanctified by it. Few have turned to the Lord, to become followers of Jesus. Hence we are on the threshold of a great disintegration. Liberty is about to turn to license—anarchy; our civilization is about to be ruined, as was the Jewish polity, by liberty unrestrained by the Spirit of the Lord.

St. Paul declared that the Gospel had set him free from all other bondage; but that he surrendered his liberty to Christ, to do, not his own will, but the will of his Redeemer. Forcefully he states that in so doing he became a bond-slave to Christ.

Blessed is the condition of those who gladly surrender all to become followers of the Lord! Such can rejoice, because they know that all things work together for their good, to prepare them for the Heavenly glories.

CASCARETS CLEANSE
LIVER AND BOWELS

The millions of Cascaret users never have Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Stomach.

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little intestines need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advt.

Courage and Truth.

Without courage there cannot be truth and without truth there can be no other virtue.—Sir Walter Scott.

MRS. GUNNESS CLEW FAILS.

LaPorte, Ind., Jan. 25.—Chief of Police Melnick, who left this city ten days ago on a mysterious mission will return tomorrow. He visited Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, where he had been led to believe Belle Guinness, wanted here for many murders, was living. The information was furnished the LaPorte police by H. W. Wooden, who was attorney for Ray Lamphere, Mrs. Guinness' hired man, who confessed on his death bed in the Michigan City prison to setting fire to the house on Murder Hill Farm. A dispatch to-day declares that the woman in Lethbridge is not Mrs. Guinness.

Mothers Resented Charity.

A school teacher in Gelderland, Holland, was violently attacked recently by parents of some children to whom, in the course of a lesson on edible fungi, he had given some mushrooms to eat. "We can afford to give our children food," declared the indignant parents, "and we need no mushroom charity from the teacher."

Man's Power as Dynamo.

If the heat and muscular effort expended by an average man in a day could be converted into electrical energy it would be sufficient to run a sewing machine motor for 100 hours.

Perhaps.

Ballroom dancing must have been invented by some ingenious person, who wanted to take some one else in his arms and hadn't the right to—The Tatler.
